Dear Parents/Guardians,

The most important goal in teaching creative dramatics is to create community and collaboration. In addition, Creative Dramatics classes include various physical and vocal exercises. In order to do this, students must respect others by playing safely and by the rules.

In order to guarantee your child and all the students in our Creative Dramatics workshop a safe and enjoyable experience they deserve, I am using the following discipline plan.

Rule

Follow directions the first time they are given.

Rewards

- Individual praise.
- Whole Group Reward.
 - Tally Marks

Consequences

1. Warning.
2. Time Out.
3. Time Out and Parents Notified.

I will discuss this plan with all the participants the first day of the workshop. With your support, our Creative Dramatics class will be comfortable, safe and secure for all students!

Sincerely,
Ms. Laura Albert

Due to the active nature of creative dramatics which includes stretching, creative movement, and breathing exercises, please fill out and sign the permission slip/ waiver below.

Student Council Toy Drive

For: Good Samaritan Hospital Medical Center
Child Life Program

When: December 12-16, 2016

Please help us to BRIGHTEN A CHILD'S HOLIDAYS. Please bring in your donated toys and place them in the box in your classroom.

Some Guidelines:

New toys only. Toys made of strong, safe plastic are the safest and easiest to keep clean. Children who are stressed need calming and soothing toys. Please do not bring toys with violent themes or toys that shoot or launch missiles, cars or planes. Please refrain from plush toys (stuffed animals, etc.) because it is hard to make sure they remain clean until given. Please do not wrap gifts. That way they can see the gifts and match the best gift to each child.

Please see the wish list on the reverse side.

Thank you for you help!
